

I work long hours and am home of an evening an want to enjoy the few hours of down time without annoying telemarketing calls. I believe it has already made an impact on my family time. Please do not implement any proposals that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections.